Heijmans – Application of Luminescent Solar Concentrators as Noise Barriers

This project focuses on investigating the application of Luminescent Solar Concentrators as noise barriers in and attempt to evaluate the energy generation potential of LSC panels in a large scale application.

This project was completed by Michalis Kanellis, January 2016.